@anayadesign I see your profile says you are at Zendesk, but somehow you are not listed as a member of Zendesk. Can you send me an email request from an @zendesk.com address?

For removal requests, I replace them with generic placeholder images so existing users don't get 404s.

Note that the email will be public.

@fileformat ah, didn't realize my membership was private. I just flipped the visibility to public: <https://github.com/orgs/zendesk/people?query=anayadesign>
